Calendar Year Compliance Checklist

2024 Large Group (50+)

Compliance Deadlines for Fully and Self-Insured Groups

All deadline dates below are based off a Calendar Year Plan, some reporting deadlines may vary for plans that have a plan start date other than January 1st.

| Deadline | Document/Obligation   | Applicability   | Description   | Penalty   |
|----------|---|---|---|---|
| Jan. 1st | Section 105(h)Nondiscriminationtesting  | Employers withSelf-Insuredhealth plans  | This rule prohibits group health plansfrom discriminating in favor of highlycompensated individuals with respectto both eligibility and benefits offeredunder the plan.Employers should review their plans andensure plans are still within complianceand not discriminating against non-HighlyCompensated Individuals (HCIs).                            | HCIs must include theexcess benefits providedto them in gross income.Plan sponsor may alsoface an excise tax orpenalty of up to $100per day per individualdiscriminated against. |
| Jan. 1st | TiC: Machine-ReadableFiles  | Employers withSelf-Funded/Level-Fundedhealth plans  | Plan is ultimately responsible forupdating three machine readable files(MRFs) disclosing: in-network rates,OON allowed amounts, billed charges,negotiated rates and historical net pricesfor Rx drugs.Employers should collaborate with athird-party administrator to ensure theplan is administered in accordance withthe TiC rules at each renewal. | Subject to $100 perday per participantfor non-compliance.  |
| Jan 31st | Reporting health plancosts on Form W-2  | Employers that filed250 or more W-2 forthe prior calendar year                                      | Must report to Social SecurityAdministration and include aggregatecost of employer sponsored health plancoverage on EE's W-2.   | Penalty for such a failureis $200 per Form W-2,up to a maximum of $3Million.  |
| Jan 31st | Individual MandateReporting for Employerswith Employees inspecific cities or states | Employers with 6 ormore employees thatreside in the state ofMassachusetts                       | Provide Form MA 1099-HC to all MA resident employees  | Subject to a $50 penaltyper individual, goingup to a maximum of$50,000.   |
| Mar. 1st | Medicare Part DDisclosure to CMS  | Group health plansthat provide Rxcoverage to individualswho are eligible forMedicare Part D | Must disclose to CMS whetherPrescription coverage is creditableor non-creditable within 60 days afterthe beginning of the plan year usingCMS's Online Disclosure Form.In general, to be creditable the PlansRx actuarial value must be equal ormore than Medicare Part D's actuarialvalue for coverage.  | No enforcementpenalties or sanctions forfailing to timely file.   |

| Deadline  | Document/Obligation   | Applicability   | Description  | Penalty   |
|---|---|---|--|---|
| Mar. 1st  | M-1 Filing  | Multiple EmployerWelfare Arrangement(MEWAs)(Regardless of size)                     | The Form M-1 is an annual report thatmust be filed by MEWAs no later thanMarch 1st following any calendar yearin which the MEWA operates. MEWAsdo not include plans determined by theSecretary of Labor to be collectivelybargained.   | Up to $1,881 per dayfor late filing.No delinquent filerprogram available   |
| Mar. 1st  | Section 6055/6056Individual Statements  | Employers that areALEs with FullyInsured Health Planand Self-InsuredHealth Plan | The code requires ALEs that sponsorhealth plans, to report information aboutthe coverage to covered employeeseach year using Form 1095-C. This is anextension from the Jan 31st deadline.  | Up to $280 per formfor failing to furnish anaccurate Form 1095-C toan employee   |
| Mar. 31st(Due NextBusinessDay onApr. 1st) | Section 6055/6056Reporting (electronicfiling deadline)                                  | Employers that areALEs with FullyInsured Health Planand Self-InsuredHealth Plan | Must report to the IRS each year usingthe 1094-C and 1095-C. The deadline forfiling electronically is 4/1/24.In 2024 any employer filing morethan 10 forms will be required to fileelectronically (Including W-2s and1099s)  | A separate $280 perform penalty may beimposed for failing to filean accurate Form 1094-C and Form 1095-C withthe IRS.                            |
| Mar. 31st(Due NextBusinessDay onApr. 1st) | Individual MandateReporting for Employerswith Employees inspecific cities or states | Employers withEmployees inCA, NJ, and RI  | Employers must provide IRS Forms1095-B/1095-Cs to the state's FranchiseTax Board or Division of Taxation   | CA: Subject to a $50penalty per individualNJ: Subject to a $50penalty per individual,going up to a maximumof $50,000.RI: No Penalty listed |
| Apr. 30th   | Individual MandateReporting for Employerswith Employees inspecific cities or states | Employers withEmployees inDistrict of Columbiaand San Francisco                     | DC: Employers must provide IRS Forms1095-B/1095-Cs to DC's OTR.San Francisco: Complete the AnnualReporting Form for the San FranciscoHealth Care Security Ordinance  | DC: No penalty listedSF: Subject to a penaltyof $500 per quarter   |
| Jun. 1st(Due NextBusinessDay onJun. 3rd)  | Prescription DrugReporting (RxDC)   | Group health plansand health insuranceissuers   | Requires employer-sponsored healthplans and insurers to report informationabout Rx and healthcare spending toCMS annually.Most employers will rely on third parties,such as Carriers, TPAs or PBMs toprepare and submit on behalf of the Plan/Employer but should get guarantees inwriting. | No official guidanceon penalties havebeen released as ofthe creation of thisdocument.   |

| Deadline  | Document/Obligation                     | Applicability  | Description  | Penalty  |
|-----------|---|--|--|--|
| Jul. 31st | PCOR Fee                                | Employers with self-insured health plansor offer an HRA alongwith a fully insuredhealth plan   | Employers with self-insured health plansmust pay an annual fee to fund thePatient Centered Outcomes ResearchInstitute. HRAs offered with self-insuredgroup medical plans are not subjectto separate PCOR fees if the HRAand medical plan have the same plansponsor that year.Employers use IRS Form 720 (v. 2024) toreport and pay PCOR fees which are dueby July 31st of the year following the lastday of the plan year.Fee Schedule:Plan Years Ending on January 31, 2023 -September 30, 2023 is $3.00 per coveredlife per yearPlan Years Ending on October 31, 2023- December 31st, 2023 is $3.22 percovered life per year | 5% of the excise taxdue for each month thereturn is late, up to 25%of the unpaid tax.0.5% of the unpaidexcise tax for eachmonth the tax remainsunpaid, up to 25% of theunpaid tax.On top of penalties,interest can be chargedon unpaid excise taxes. |
| Jul. 31st | Form 5500                               | Employers with 100or more participantson the plan at thebeginning of the planyear. (ERISA-coveredgroup health plans thatdo not qualify for thesmall plan exemptionand MEWAs) | Employers are required to file an annual Form 5500 unless a reporting exemption applies. The form must be filed by the last day of the seventh month following the end of the plan year unless an extension applies via a Form 5558 being filed prior to normal due date of 5500.  | Up to $2,586 per dayfor late filing. DelinquentFiler VoluntaryCompliance (DFVC)program could allow forreduced penalties   |
| Sep. 30th | Medical Loss Ratio(MLR) Rebates     | Employers with fullyinsured health plansthat receive MLRrebates  | Employers that receive rebates shouldconsider their legal options for using therebate. Any rebate amount must be usedfor the exclusive benefit of the plan'sparticipants and beneficiaries within 3months of receiving the rebate to avoidERISA trust requirements   | Penalty for each violationis $100 per entity, perday, per individualaffected by the violation.  |
| Sep. 30th | Summary Annual Report(SAR)          | Group health plansthat are subject to theForm 5500 filing andhave not extended thedeadline via a Form5558  | Employers that are required to file a Form5500 must provide participants with asummary of the information in the Form5500, called a summary annual report(SAR). The plan administrator mustprovide the SAR within nine months ofthe close of the plan year.  | No monetary penaltyfor failure to timelydistribute, howeverUp to $110/day if notprovided to participantwithin 30 days of request  |
| Oct. 15th | Medicare Part D Notices to participants | Group health plansthat provide Rxcoverage to Individualseligible for MedicarePart D  | Employers must notify Medicare PartD-eligible individuals by Oct. 15th of eachyear about whether the Rx coverage iscreditable or non-creditable as discussedabove.   | No specific penalty foremployers.Potential penalty forindividuals who do notmaintain creditablecoverage.   |

| Deadline           | Document/Obligation   | Applicability  | Description   | Penalty  |
|--------------------|---|--|---|--|
| Oct. 15th,2024 | Form 5500 (Extended deadline)   | ERISA-covered grouphealth plans that donot qualify for thesmall plan exemptionand MEWAs (andhave timely requestedan extension to thefiling deadline) | An employer may request a one-timeextension of 2.5 months by filing a Form5558 by the normal due date of Form5500. Employers are required to file anannual Form 5500 by October 15th 2024after a Form 5558 was submitted beforethe July deadline, which automaticallygranted an extension up to 2.5 months.   | Up to $2,586 per dayfor late filing. DelinquentFiler VoluntaryCompliance (DFVC)program could allow forreduced penalties.  |
| Nov. 1st           | Employer Penalty:Identify application andmethod of compliance   | All Employers  | Determine ALE Status (i.e., whetherthe employer has at least 50 full-timeemployees (FTEs) each calendar year,considering all common law employeesin the entire controlled group andcounting each part-time employee as afraction of the FTE). Determine full-timestatus using monthly measurementmethod or look-back measurementmethod. Offer coverage to FTEs anddependent children. Evaluate minimumvalue, affordability and elect a safeharbor. Ensure that all plan languageaccurately reflects the selections. | "A" PenaltyAdjusted for inflation:$2,970 for 2024 timestotal number of FTEsafter the first 30 areremoved for relief."B" PenaltyAdjusted for inflation:$4,460 for 2024 timesthe total number ofACA FTEs who receivethe subsidy in theMarketplace (maxpenalty is capped at the"A" penalty) |
| Nov. 1st           | Identify FTE statuseligibility using theStandard MeasurementPeriod (SMP), StabilityPeriod (SP) andAdministrative Period(AP) | Employers that arean Applicable LargeEmployer and havevariable hour part-timeemployees.  | There are two methods for determiningfull-time employee status. The monthlymeasurement method or the look-backmeasurement method. Zywave has moredetailed information on each method andreasons an employer may prefer onemethod over another.  | "A" PenaltyAdjusted for inflation:$2,970 for 2024 timestotal number of FTEsafter the first 30 areremoved for relief."B" PenaltyAdjusted for inflation:$4,460 for 2024 timesthe total number ofACA FTEs who receivethe subsidy in theMarketplace (maxpenalty is capped at the"A" penalty) |

| Deadline                                | Document/Obligation   | Applicability   | Description   | Penalty  |
|---|---|---|---|--|
| Nov. 1st                                | Measure PlanAffordability   | Employers that areAn Applicable LargeEmployer   | There are three safe harbors thatan employer may use to determineaffordability for purposes of the employershared responsibility provisions.Employers are allowed to choose fromusing either the Form W-2 wages, anemployee's rate of pay or the federalpoverty limit to make their affordabilitydetermination. The contributionpercentage to determine affordability forPlan Years starting in 2024 is 8.39% .2024 percentage is a significantdecrease from previous years.   | "A" PenaltyAdjusted for inflation:$2,970 for 2024 timestotal number of FTEsafter the first 30 areremoved for relief."B" PenaltyAdjusted for inflation:$4,460 for 2024 timesthe total number ofACA FTEs who receivethe subsidy in theMarketplace (maxpenalty is capped at the"A" penalty) |
| BetweenNov.15th andDec.16th | Individual MandateReporting for Employerswith Employees inspecific cities or states | Employers withemployees thatreside in the state ofMassachusetts   | Provide a complete HIRD form for MA resident employees.   | There are no fines or penalties related to a completed HIRD Form.  |
| Dec. 16th,2024                      | SAR(Extended deadline)  | Group health plansthat are subject to theForm 5500 filing andhave extended thedeadline via a Form5558 | If an extension of time to file Form 5500is obtained, the plan administrator mustfurnish the SAR within two monthsafter the close of the extension period.Employers must provide the SAR toparticipants by December 16th, 2024.   | No monetary penaltyfor failure to timelydistribute, howeverUp to $110/day if notprovided to participantwithin 30 days ofrequest.  |
| Dec. 31st                               | Prohibition on GagClauses   | All group medicalplans  | Plans and carriers may not enter into an agreement with a provider, network, TPA or other service provider offering access to a network of providers that restricts the plan from; providing provider-specific cost or quality of care data, electronically access de-identified claim and encounter data for each participant or beneficiary and sharing such information, consistent with applicable privacy regulations.An attestation of compliance must be filed electronically with CMS each year to attest for the previous plan year.Employers should coordinate in writing with their Carrier, TPAs or other service providers to verify who will be submitting the attestation and will be meeting with the requirement. Employers are ultimately responsible in completing this task. | No guidance onpenalties have beenreleased as of thecreation of thisdocument.   |